About Family Promise of Coastal Alabama

Family Promise of Coastal Alabama is a non-profit that partners with families staring down the biggest challenge many of them will ever face, homelessness. We welcome families of every faith, class, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation or country of origin. Parents in the FPCA program work to rebuild a stable life for their children. We help by delivering safe temporary shelter and essential services such as transportation and life balance skills. We employ a cost-efficient service model by collaborating with a community of hundreds of volunteers who arrange sleeping space and dinner, but also provide a support network for families. FPCA combines a strategic client-centered focus to service with a dignified, value-driven approach to change.

A life without a home is a life without basic necessities, safety, or hope. By supporting Family Promise of Coastal Alabama, you are helping transform lives and the city of Mobile for the better.

We believe that every family deserves a home, and every community can make that happen!
